

A Heart-Healing Anthology

“Honest, personal, and compelling...
I felt as if God were reading over my shoulder.”

—MICHAEL MESSENGER, Executive VP, World Vision Canada

A wonderful collection of 51 inspiring personal experience articles, short stories, and poems by 37 Canadian writers whose work is distinguished by honesty and vulnerability, combined with hope.

- Editors N. J. Lindquist and Wendy Elaine Nelles are award-winning writers who are committed to fostering excellence in faith-based writing.
- The writers showcased in this book are available to speak, sign books, do media interviews, blog, post on social media sites, and do whatever it takes to see that this uplifting book reaches everyone who might benefit from its help and encouragement.
- Interviews, discussion questions for book clubs, links to contributors' sites, promotions, etc., are at hotapplecider.ca.
- Attractive design and apple-themed interior photos in black and white increase the book's visual appeal.
- This book and its predecessor, the award-winning Hot Apple Cider, were chosen by World Vision Canada to be presented as gifts to people attending Girls Night Out and Couples Night Out events sponsored by FaithLife Financial, hosted in communities across Canada and the U.S.A.
- 45,000 copies of Hot Apple Cider are now in circulation: 30,000 through Girls Night Out and Couples Night Out events, and nearly 15,000 through sales.

“Don't be mistaken—these aren't frothy tales boasting syrupy platitudes: these homegrown stories capture both the grit and inspiring reality of Canadians who live out their faith, seeing God at work in their lives and the world around them.”

—MICHELLE NAGLE, Executive Director, Women Alive

“This comforting and encouraging book should be in every home, library, church, and school.”

—PAULINE CHRISTIAN, President, Black Business and Professional Association; entrepreneur; community advocate

“Easy to pick up and tough to put down.”

—PHIL CALLAWAY, bestselling author, speaker, and humorist

“Like a heart-to-heart conversation with a close friend, A Second Cup of Hot Apple Cider draws us into the intimacy of relationship with one another and our Creator.”

—KAREN BJERLAND, President and CEO, FaithLife Financial

“With moments of humour, struggle, romance, courage, heartache, and ultimately hope, A Second Cup of Hot Apple Cider is rich with buoyant prose and wondrous poetry...”

—MARTIN SMITH, President, GMA Canada

“A well-written collection of short pieces... I found the stories inspiring and motivating. I highly recommend this volume.”

—LANDO KLASSEN, bookseller for 38 years, House of James
